

New Jersey Crisis Resources
Mental Health Association of New Jersey	NJMentalHealthCares is New Jersey's behavioral health information and referral service. Its staff of trained behavioral care specialists can offer emotional support for issues related to COVID-19 and other mental health concerns.	1-866-202-4357 (HELP)
Caring Contact	Caring Contact is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that provides active listening support to the central and northern New Jersey communities.	1-908-232-2880
New Jersey Hopeline	The New Jersey Suicide Prevention Hopeline (NJ Hopeline) is funded by the New Jersey Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services and operated by Rutgers University Behavioral Health Care.	1-855-654-6735
Children's Mobile Response and Stabilization Services	This service is aimed at ensuring the safety and wellbeing of children, youth and their families/caregivers facing crisis situations as a result of escalating behaviors that may risk disruption of a child or youth's current living arrangements. CMRSS provides immediate crisis response on-site and coordinates subsequent stabilization services to children, youth, their families, and caregivers. This service serves Middlesex and Essex Counties.	1-877-652-7624
CONTACT of Mercer County	CONTACT a hotline serving Mercer County, NJ. The crisis helpline provides a warm, non-judgmental space for individuals to talk through emotions. As a member of the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline Network, helpline specialists also work to reduce the rate of suicide.	1-609-896-2120
CONTACT of Burlington County	CONTACT is a hotline serving Burlington County that provides a warm, non-judgmental space for individuals to talk through emotions. As a member of the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline Network, helpline specialists also work to reduce the rate of suicide.	1-856-234-5484
Designated Screening Services in New Jersey : A directory of programs for psychiatric emergencies, crisis intervention services, information, and referrals.		